28th Annual Celebration

Raymond Country Fair 5K/10K Cannonball Run and Mini Ball 1-mile Fun Run

Come celebrate the Country Fair and run through historic Raymond and the Raymond Battlefield. The runs start near the Confederate Cemetery and continues through the Raymond Battlefield where the Battle of Raymond took place on May 12, 1863. The 5K race will turn around near the entry to the battlefield while the 10K continues through Civil War Campgrounds. The 10K will feature a half pavement and half trail run through old battle sites. Both races will finish at the town square in downtown Raymond. Check for updates and more information www.raymondchamber.com

The One Mile Mini Ball Fun Run will begin at 9:15 a.m. following the 5K Run/Walk. Registration is limited to children age 13 and under. Parents may accompany their children without registering for the run.

Commitment to wellness and lifelong health

Mississippi has become a national leader in recent years due to our commitments outlined in the Healthy Students Act of 2007. Through events such as the Cannonball Run and the Mini Ball Fun Run, we help to increase the public's awareness of proper exercise, diet and health education. Together we can change Mississippi and reverse many of the negative health trends that have hindered our state for so many years. People who spend time exercising outdoors are generally happier, healthier, and more in-tune with our environment. Thank you for participating in this event and encouraging others where you work and live to stay active.

This run is in memory of Dr. G.F. Beissel

Dr. Beissel started this race in 1982. He unselfishly gave his time and energy to youth through running a race at the Raymond Fair. Even after all these years, this run is a symbol of the love and care Dr. Beissel had for Raymond, and we keep this tradition alive.

The race that keeps on giving

The profits from this year's race will benefit the Hinds County Youth Baseball Association. With the recently completed expansion and construction of the new baseball fields at Mid Point Park on Clinton Raymond Road, the association is raising funds to complete the dug outs and build press boxes for each of the three new fields. For more information on supporting this project or becoming involved with the Association, please contact Susan Tullos at 601.940.8465.
